Am Dm
They made up their minds and they started packing
Am/E E Am
They left before the sun came up that day
A7 Dm
An exit to eternal slacking
Am E Am G
But where were they going without ever knowing the way?

Am Dm
They drank up the wine and they got to talking
Am E Am
They now had more important things to say
A7 Dm
And when the car broke down they started walking
Am E Am G
But where were they going without ever knowing the way?

C G
Anyone could see the road that they walk on is paved in gold
Am E
And it's always summer, they'll never get cold
F C G
They'll never get hungry. They'll never get old and gray.
C G
You can see their shadows wandering off somewhere
Am E
They won't get make it home, but they really don't care
F C G E
They wanted the highway. They're happy there today, today

Am Dm
The children woke up and they couldn't find them
Am/E E Am
